Justice Chamber of Commerce

7800 S. Archer Road, Justice, IL 60458

Our Mission: To help businesses prosper and grow.

Who We Are:

The Justice Chamber of Commerce is comprised of local business people working together to promote the success of area businesses as well as encourage new businesses to locate to Justice. The Chamber officers and board of directors are volunteer business men and women who are elected to serve on the Chamber Board by the general membership.

What We Can Do For You:

- Keep you informed of legislative and municipal matters that concern your business through our involvement in the Chicago Southland Chamber of Commerce.
- Encourage members and area residents to utilize the goods and services provided by all Chamber members.
- Offer educational and social programs which provide an opportunity for you to meet fellow business persons, learn new information and share insights.
- Promote your business to the community through our website, our “Business Directory”, and seasonal “Justice Journal” newsletter.
- Promote good business practice in local businesses.

The Chamber constantly strives to meet the changing needs of its membership and welcomes any comments or suggestions. We hope you will consider how the Chamber can benefit your business and become an active member. Our annual membership fee is $75. If you would like more information, please contact us:
